

				14

(58)

14 is that which falls under a general rule and is therefore applicable to other words. On the other hand, doesn't fall under a general rule and is not applicable to other words. For example, the harakahs of the middle root letter of the past and the present are . The infinitive of the basic tri-literal is also . Refer to a root letter based Arabic dictionary for the past, present, and infinitive.